

Invitation to Serve as Panel Members for NQSTI “Cascade call for Research” Evaluation

We cordially invite experts operating abroad or experts operating in Italy who are part of the entities participating in the project but not involved in the “critical mass” to contribute their expertise as members of the evaluation panels for NQSTI cascade calls for research. Please express your interest by completing the form provided via the following link "<https://forms.gle/YFD8ZZ7MjBPht8479>"

All submitted names will be forwarded to the MUR referee committee that will assemble the evaluation panels.

Thank you for your willingness to contribute to the advancement of NQSTI research initiatives.
